THE BIBLIOTHECA ALEXANDRINA
MANUAL OF STYLE

In response to the rapid evolution of technology and the escalating demand for knowledge dissemination, the Bibliotheca Alexandrina has introduced a groundbreaking resource: The Bibliotheca Alexandrina Manual of Style. This comprehensive guide aims to revolutionize documentation and citation practices within the Arab world.

As the region's first-of-its-kind reference, the Manual seeks to unify and standardize best practices in referencing, particularly in the digital age. It addresses the unique challenges of citing sources in Arabic, providing clear guidelines for both traditional and electronic materials.

By promoting accurate and consistent citation, the Manual safeguards intellectual property rights and elevates the overall quality of scholarly work. It serves as an invaluable tool for researchers, writers, and editors, aligning with international academic publishing standards.
